NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF STUDY AND RESEARCH IN LAW, RANCHI

The National University of Study and Research in Law, Ranchi has been established by an Act of the State Legislature prompted by the vision of the constitutional forefathers that the law, legal system, and legal institutions have an overreaching role of human, social, political and economic development of the Nation. Situated in Ranchi, the capital city of Jharkhand, NUSRL has been established to develop a holistic perspective of legal education in all its ramifications, particularly advocacy, judicial and legal institutional services, legislations, law reforms and all the research in these areas.

With a modest beginning, the University is all set to compete with global economic standards with a deftly crafted teaching-learning methodology. NUSRL endeavours to share the global opportunity in law as well as legal discipline.

National Human Rights Commission (NHRC)

---

The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) of India was established on 12 October 1993. The statute under which it is established is the Protection of Human Rights Act (PHRA), 1993 as amended by the Protection of Human Rights (Amendment) Act, 2006. It conforms with the Paris Principles, adopted at the first international workshop on national institutions for the promotion and protection of human rights held in Paris in October 1991, and endorsed by the General Assembly of the United Nations by its Regulations 48/134 of 20 December 1993. The NHRC is an embodiment of India's concern for the promotion and protection of human rights.

ABOUT THE MOOT

Human Rights are standards that recognise and protect the dignity of all human beings. Human rights govern how individual human beings live in society and with each other, as well as their relationship with the State and the obligations that the State have towards them. Human rights law obliges governments to do some things and prevents them from doing others. Individuals also have responsibilities: in using their human rights, they must respect the rights of others. No government, group or individual person has the right to do anything that violates another's rights.
