VISION

School of Law, JECRC University aims to become a Law institute of Global standing to develop competent legal professionals by providing professionally competent and pragmatic law-abiding citizens with scientific and objective temperaments bearing well-rounded personalities, who know much more than law.

MISSION

The primary objective of the university is to evaluate and impart comprehensive and interdisciplinary legal education that is socially relevant. Although this education aim to promote legal and ethics and foster the rule of law and the objectives enshrined in the constitution of India. To become a premier law institution breeding students focusing on research and community work besides fulfilling their respective ambitions.

To achieve the pinnacle of perfection in legal education by providing and conducive ethos to help students and facilities strive for and attain perfection. Furthermore, the university works towards the dissemination of legal knowledge and its role in national development, so that the ability to analyze and present contemporary issues of public concern and their legal implications for the benefit of the public is improved. These processes strive to promote legal awareness in the community and to achieve political, social, and economic justice.

ABOUT THE CLUB AMICUS CURIAE

Amicus Curiae, a law club has become a benchmark to improve and advance the knowledge of law among students by developing a sense of responsibility toward society and the legal environment. Our club organizes various activities which are rooted in the needs of budding lawyers & it helps them in the growth of their all-round development in the field of law. Its sole mission is to spread the knowledge, skills, and ethical values to meet the demands of the dynamic legal professional environment.

At present time, the ADR Mechanism is considered an important method for Dispute Resolve Mechanism. The club has always been passionate about fostering ADR culture in law students. To foster and contribute to the overall growth of ADR in the country, our club regularly organizes events that encourage students to learn more about ADR. Earlier, one of the mega-events that we organized was a National Bootcamp on Practice & Performance of Arbitration in which several eminent personalities from London, Malaysia, Singapore & India graced their presence including Dr. Lalit Bhasin, Chair, CIARB India. The Bootcamp was in collaboration with The Young, MCIA is an organ of the Mumbai Centre for International Arbitration & The Asian Institute of Alternative Dispute Resolution (AIADR) is the first non-profit member-based Asian center for ADR, In continuance, we are organizing another mega event - II JECRC National Mediation & Negotiation Competition, 2023. We are also proud to inform you that our 1st Edition JECRC NATIONAL MEDIATION & NEGOTIATION COMPETITION” was a huge success witnessed by eminent personalities on the panel, in collaboration with AIADR, Malaysia & SAMA, Bangalore on 23rd, 24th & 25th July 2022.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

National Mediation and Negotiation Competition is a step taken by the JECRC University, Jaipur Rajasthan towards acting as a facilitator in increasing the ADR Culture among aspiring students.

In the milieu of the backlog of cases reaching its saturation, Alternative Dispute Resolution such as mediation and negotiation provide an amicable way out. The competition seeks to provide a prodigious experience that will amplify the interests of young minds in this niche practice of law.

The competition will help students brainstorm probable solutions for near-to real-world challenges while providing them with the comfort of choosing their roles as per their preferences. It, therefore, tries to break the monotony of theory-based learning and helps students in putting their knowledge and skills to use. This competition will also provide an opportunity for the participants to develop the requisite lawyering and communication skills.

The appealing and ever-growing fields of the law will be selected for this competition to expose the participants to a situation where the interests of clients are multifold, often going beyond mere commercial interests. The participants are expected to take a multi-dimensional approach to reach a settlement, showcasing the variety of fields that can be effectively dealt with via mediation.

OUR AIMS

- To advance the ADR practice in India.
- To design the premier platform for students to showcase their mediation and negotiation skills.
- Advanced mediation skills over more traditional complaint procedures provide an environment for creative problem-solving between the parties.
- Through the skilled assistance of the mediator, disputants are encouraged to listen, keep confidence, be empathetic, suspend preconceived judgments, respect each other's values, and focus on resolving the underlying conflict.
- To share feelings and reduce hostilities, clear up misunderstandings, determine underlying interests and concerns, find areas of agreement, and incorporate those areas into solutions devised by the parties themselves.

OUR ADVISORS

PROF. VICTOR GAMBHIR

(PRESIDENT, JECRC UNIVERSITY)

School of Law, JECRC University has traversed a long distance and grown in leaps and bounds to stand tall among the law institutes of India. School of Law, strives hard to provide unlimited resources and vistas of opportunities to unearth the potential of students and assist them to inch toward their dreams with benevolent confidence. Law Students are forever entangled between challenge and inspiration. It has always been profoundly inspiring to observe students who are working collaboratively with a dedicated band of mentors to dazzle the world with their abilities. I extend my heartfelt greetings and felicitations to every member of the Amicus Curiae, School of Law. JECRC University.

PROF. (DR.) MAHESHKOOLWAL

(DEAN, SCHOOL OF LAW, JECRC UNIVERSITY)

Today teaching has undergone a sea of change from traditional to digital classrooms and the School of Law JECRC has left no stone unturned in providing the best to its student. The elegant and ethical design infrastructure, mammoth Moot Court, and well-stocked library all speak volumes about the magnanimity of the School of Law. Catapulting to the zenith, scaling the pinnacle of success, and decking the pedestal of par excellence is no cakewalk but JECRCians have walked the tightrope with equanimity. Nothing can relegate these gritty, tenacious students with oodles of perseverance.

Thence, I extend my best wishes to all the organizing members of the Amicus Curiae, Law Club of the School of Law.

DR. NAMITA JAIN

(HEAD OF DEPARTMENT, SCHOOL OF LAW, JECRC UNIVERSITY))

Embedded deeply in the JECRC institution is the spirit of compassion, responsibility, and commitment to define the youth of the country with rich cultural moral values and quality education at par with the best in the state. At JECRC we try to build a cordial relationship with our students to unearth their potential and unleash their imagination. The ambiance of the institute is imbued with the aura of character and purity of exalted thoughts that continue to spread its fragrance and linger on for eternity.

Through this competition, students will demonstrate their multiple skills. Mediation is an effective tool for dispute resolution. Thus, this competition will provide a platform for the holistic development of the student."I Hope together we all can continue to inspire and amuse everyone!".

DR. TULIKA SINGH

(FACULTY IN-CHARGE, AMICUS CURIAE, JECRC UNIVERSITY)

"Peace cannot be kept by force but it can only be achieved by understanding" with the application of this quote in the field of the emerging spectrum of law where efforts are made to minimize the burden of courts, the School of Law, JECRC University has tread giant strides to strike a deal between the best of the two worlds-tech at its best and ethos nurtured with values. Mediation Competition not only enriches students' skills but also prepares them to manage their time efficiently. JECRCians have struck the right chord, for the "more is less" as their appetite for achievement is never satiating one. We can assure you that here at the School of Law, JECRC, learning would continue to be a joyful experience and I wish them all the best in their future endeavors.

WHY JAIPUR ?

Jaipur has a vibe & is popularly known as “Pink City”. Jaipur is also known for housing some of the best architectural structures and heritage sights in the country. Everything in and around the city appears like the watermark of the rich heritage of the city in the erstwhile days. The local handicrafts, the ancient monuments, the royal palaces, and the colorful saris, everything around Jaipur give a glimpse into the glorious lives of the monarchy. Eat like royalty, shop for jewelry, and find a weekend’s worth of bliss amid the commotion. Jaipurites have the charm to win hearts with their lovely smiles and warm hospitality and are cheerful and friendly people, who love to explore and meet new people.
