ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:

The Tamil Nadu National Law University (TNNLU) was established by the Government of Tamil Nadu by an Act of State Legislature (Act No. 9 of 2012) to provide quality legal education at the global level.

TNNLU has been established with the following laudable objectives:

- 1.To advance and disseminate learning and knowledge of the law and legal processes and their role in national development;
- 2.To develop in the students and research scholars a sense of responsibility to serve society in the field of law by developing skills with regard to advocacy, legal services, legislation, law reforms and the like;
- 3.To organize lectures, seminars, symposia and conferences to promote legal knowledge and to make law and legal processes as efficient instruments of social development;
- 4.To hold examinations and confer degrees and other academic distinctions and to do all such things as are incidental, necessary or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the objectives of the University.

ABOUT THE ORGANISER (NDLI CLUB):

TNNLU is the only law university that is a part of the NDLI Club. TNNLU-NDLI club was established in 2021 to disseminate and enrich the knowledge among the faculty members, students and the administrative staff of TNNLU. TNNLU-NDLI club is intended to organize various activities such as NDLI Lecture Series, NDLI Quiz, NDLI Story Talk, NDLI Go Fish, NDLI Film Screening, NDLI Draw, NDLI Role Play, NDLI Write On, NDLI Makerspace and NDLI Debate in Institute, state and National Level to promote reading habit among the students and faculty members.
