LETTER FROM THE SECRETARIAT

Dear Delegates,

The power to shape the world lies within your grasp.

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you to attend the edition of the Vaakshetra's Model United Nations (VMUN) Conference that will be conducted on the dates of 29th of February and 1st of March, 2024, with the committees of UNGA, Lok Sabha, UNDP, AIPPM and International Press. We hope to have productive and insightful discussions on various aspects of world order that impact the lives of the billions that inhabit this planet.

We are confident that as delegates you will be able to bring in productive ideas and engage in healthy debates and discussions to represent your national interest on the world stage while at the same time looking at the bigger picture of international co-existence.

Let us, together, attempt to bring about real change through this conference and light up the floor with diplomatic fervor and intellectual charisma.

Best of luck to the delegates and may the conference be enriched by your presence.

Regards,

SECRETARIAT

UNITED NATIONS

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Agenda: Deliberating upon Comprehensive Oil and Energy Trade Strategies with special emphasis on the effects of geopolitical conflicts and inflation.

The United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) plays a crucial role as the main deliberative, policymaking, and representative organ of the United Nations. The UNGA provides a forum to 193 member states to discuss and debate a wide range of international issues, including peace and security, development, human rights, and international law. The General Assembly fosters cooperation among member states and coordinates efforts to address global challenges. It provides a platform for multilateral diplomacy, dialogue, and negotiation, facilitating the resolution of conflicts and the promotion of peace and security.

UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Agenda: Accelerating progress towards achieving Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 13: Climate Action.

The United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) is the United Nations' global development network. It operates in nearly 170 countries and territories, working to eradicate poverty, reduce inequalities, and promote sustainable development. UNDP plays a vital role in advancing the global development agenda and supporting countries in their efforts to achieve sustainable and equitable development. It works collaboratively with governments, civil society, and other partners to create positive change and improve the lives of people around the world.

LOK SABHA

Agenda: Deliberation upon the government's role in providing opportunities and challenges for India in the digital era.

The Lok Sabha, literally meaning "House of the People," is one of the two houses of the Parliament of India. It is the lower house, where members are directly elected by the citizens of India. The Lok Sabha is vested with the primary responsibility of enacting laws and legislation. It debates and votes on bills introduced in Parliament, including budgetary bills, statutory bills, and amendments to existing laws. Lok Sabha plays a crucial role in India's democratic system, serving as a forum for lawmaking, debate, and representation. It embodies the principles of popular sovereignty and ensures that the government remains accountable to the people it serves.

INTERNATIONAL PRESS

International press (IP) is a segment of Model United Nations that stimulates the role of journalists in covering global events and issues. It provides delegates with a unique perspective on how their actions and decisions are perceived by the international community. Members of the IP observe the debates, taking note of key arguments, rebuttals, and discussions that take place. They pay attention to the strategies employed by the debating teams, the quality of arguments presented, and the overall dynamics of the debate. International Press plays a crucial role in enriching the debate competition experience by providing media coverage, analysis, and commentary. They contribute to the educational aspect of the event by offering diverse perspectives and fostering a deeper understanding of the issues discussed.
