DAMODARAM SANJIVAYYA NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY

The growing demand for quality legal education across the country was the reason for the establishment of several National Law Universities, which have gained significant prominence. In order to cater to the academic aspirations of students at National Level in general and the State of Andhra Pradesh in particular, the Government of AP established Damodaram Sanjivayya National Law University (DSNLU) under the Damodaram Sanjivayya National Law University Act, 2008 (AP Act no.32 of 2008), at Visakhapatnam. The university is recognized under Section 2(f) and 2(b) of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, and is duly approved by the Bar Council of India. The University is committed to delivering high standards of legal education and fostering excellence in academic and legal research. Its mission is to design and implement innovative legal curricula that promote intellectual growth and professional competence. DSNLU currently offers a five-year integrated B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) program, 3-year LL.B. program, a one-year LL.M. program with specializations in Constitutional Law, Criminal Law and Commercial Law. The university also offers Ph.d & LL.D. programmes (Full-time, Part-time and Executive).

About DSNLJ

DSNLJ is an annual, student-edited, peer-reviewed law journal by the Society for Paper Publications of DSNLU. We aspire to carve out a niche in legal discourse and serve as a research arm for students, scholars, practitioners, academicians, and a broader intellectual community. With an aim to render top-quality publications, DSNLJ invites submissions for its upcoming issue 2025, focusing on the theme of “Property and Law: Perspectives and Challenges.” We welcome scholarly articles, case studies/ comments/ notes, legislative analyses/ policy papers exploring various dimensions of tangible and intangible Property within the legal framework.

Sub - Themes:

- Customary Laws in Property Rights -Property and Inheritance
- Property Rights in the Digital Domain
- Property Rights and Gender Justice
- Cross-Border Property Issues
- Land Laws, including Acquisition, Grants, and Property Rights
- State owns property under the Escheat, Eminent Domain, and Police Power
- Tenancy and Property Rights
- Property of the Tribes and their Protection
- Infrastructure Growth and Property Law
- Real Estate and Property
- Digitalization and E-Governance Initiative in Property Management
- Any related matters

Authors are invited to submit manuscripts on any theme they consider pertinent, provided it falls within the broader ambit of property and law. Submissions that critically analyze existing legal frameworks, propose meaningful reforms, introduce novel perspectives or address emerging issues in this domain are particularly encouraged. Inter-disciplinary contributions are welcome, and all manuscripts must conform to established academic standards. Empirical research will be encouraged.

Submission Categories

- Long Papers / Article (5,000 to 10,000 words): Submissions in this category are expected to engage with a topic, and existing literature, comprehensively, and offer an innovative reassessment.
